To Whom It May Concern:

I am in receipt of your packaged for Foreclosure Mediation. The package is requesting that I fill out information for a loan modification. I am not seeking a loan modification, I am requesting Mediation. I thought Mediation would be an opportunity to meet with the lender to resolve the foreclosure issue. This is written notification I misunderstood the "Request for Foreclosure Mediation" application. I believed I was checking "other alternative to a foreclosure sale of my home." In your package, you sent a notice that Mediation has been scheduled for Wednesday, June 26, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. at your office in Hunt Valley, MD. I do plan to attend.

If you have any questions concerning this correspondence, please contact me in writing at the address list above.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Renee L. McCray

RE: Mediation

Dear Mr. Blohm:

I am in receipt of your letter dated May 28, 2013 concerning "mediation or court order process". Although I agreed to Mediation, I am still waiting for a response from Wells Fargo concerning the letter I sent to Kelsey Alvarez, Executive Mortgage Specialist dated April 8, 2013 (copy enclosed) to be answered point by point in order for preparation for the Mediation Meeting on Wednesday, June 26, 2013.

I am also enclosing a copy of the February 25, 2013 letter that was sent to Samuel I. White, P.C., John E. Driscoll, III, et al., and Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation in which Wells Fargo should have a copy. I would also like a response from Wells Fargo point by point before the mediation date.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Regards,

/s/Renee L. McCray
